4th WALL PRODUCTIONS

FIVE

By Lorena Cenci

On January 27th 1945, the suffering at Auschwitz came to an end and humanity was made aware of exactly what it was capable of when uncontrolled emotions are allowed to take flight. Since then we have tried to reconcile ourselves to the atrocity, often sweeping the pain aside.

Sometimes, we need to remember

Five is a poignant play that endeavours to answer the questions surrounding The Holocaust. It is the story of five prisoners that try to come to terms with their time in Auschwitz. With the narrators help they are taken on a journey of dialogue, song, music and dance in an attempt to understand the incomprehensible sequence of events.
